

"I'm beginning to figure out how it works: All those 'hominid bones'—our so-called half-ape, half-human ancestors—turn out to be nothing more than immature ape skulls, ape bones doctored up with knives and chisels, mismatched human skulls and ape jaws, human child skulls and baby ape jaws, or a pig tooth, dolphin rib, or donkey skull!"