

"Scientists have just discovered that we and other predators had a lot to do with producing 'biogeographic distribution.' "

"I'm trying to find a marsupial ape in Australia. That will help prove the theory."

"I've studied biogeographic distribution for 35 years and, frankly, all the evidence doesn't really prove anything!"

"There's not supposed to have been elephants in America! It just doesn't fit the theory!"